

K-Love reminds me daily that it is more important to live an honorable, morally sound life; than it is to live a life trying to please my own selfish desires. It is the ONLY Christian station (in my area) that appeals to my two young teens. They prefer K-Love to the "rap" stations filled with junk lyrics. If more citizens would consider listening to K-Love, I sincerely believe our nation would become more morally sound.